

congress 2015

OF THE HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Child minding and day camp services

The University of Ottawa is pleased to offer child minding and day camp services for children 6 months to 12 years of age to registered attendees.

Online pre-registration is required, as the number of spaces is limited. The registration deadline is May 14, 2015.

Registration: The registration form will be posted on the Congress 2015 website (www.congress2015.ca) in October 2014.

Hours of operation: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day of Congress 2015 (May 30 to June 5).

Contact: Élise Detellier, edetelli@uottawa.ca, 613-562-5800, extension 7418

Child minding—children 6 months to 5 years of age

Fostering positive human qualities while providing the care and education appropriate to the children's development.

In partnership with Bernadette Child Care Centre, the University of Ottawa is offering child minding services for children 6 months to 5 years of age. Spaces will be reserved for the children of registered Congress 2015 attendees.

Bilingual services
Fee: $70 per day

The following are included in the fee:

- Morning and afternoon snack*
- Hot lunch*
- Age-appropriate morning and afternoon programming
- Licensed staff

We give special attention to allergies and provide vegetarian menu options.*

The ratio of educators to children is 1 to 5 or 1 to 3, depending on the age group. All ratios and services meet the standards of the Ontario Ministry of Education.

The Bernadette Child Care Centre is a non-profit organization established in 1988 through the cooperative efforts of University of Ottawa students and staff. It is located on the University campus. For more information, please visit www.gbccc.ca.

Gee-Gees day camp—children 5 to 12 years of age

A FUN AND REWARDING EXPERIENCE!

During Congress 2015, the University of Ottawa will open its doors to youth at the Gee-Gees day camp. The University campus is a safe, welcoming, bilingual setting in which young and old can learn and explore a variety of sports, recreational activities and cultural activities.

The day camp is perfect for 5- to 12-year-olds interested in a variety of activities. Gee-Gees camp counsellors are dedicated to helping youth grow and flourish through a mix of leadership, artistic, cultural, academic, athletic and aquatic activities.

In addition to a memorable experience, the day camp includes a morning snack*, lunch* and a Gee-Gees camp T-shirt.

We give special attention to allergies and provide vegetarian menu options.*

Bilingual services
Fee: $45 per day

